

AN ASTRONOMICAL DIARY, OR, AN ALMANACK

For the Year of Christian Era,

1 7 6 2.

And from the Creation of the World 5711.

Being the second Year after Bisextile or LEAP-YEAR.

In the 11d Year of the Reign of King GEORGE III^d.

Wherein is contained, the Sun's Rising and Setting, Lu-nations, Eclipses of the Luminaries, Courts, Aspects, Spring-Tides, Judgments of the Weather, Time of High-Water, &c.

To which is annexed, a Column in each Monthly Page, of the true Time of the Moon's Rising and Setting in the Night Season throughout the Year.

Calculated for the Meridian of BOSTON, in
NEW-ENGLAND; whose Pole is elevated 42
• Deg. 25 Min. North;—But may indifferently serve any Part of New-England.

By NATHAN AEL LOW.

Professor of Astronomy in Ipswich.

THIS GOD who made the World by his great Power,
And he preserves us all from Harm or Fear;
The Sun to rule by Day, he form'd the Light;
He made the Moon and Stars to rule by Night;
Behold the Fire, the Air, the Earth and Sea,
Behold Beasts, the Fowls, the Plants and Trees;
Were all created at the powerful Word,
And moving Spirit of the mighty GOD.

BOSTON: Printed and Sold by D. and J. KNEELAND opposite to the Prison in Queen-Street. 1762.

Printed by Chappin, Angle, and 12, per Dozen, One Penny.

Curious READER,

I Here present you with this little Diary for the Year 1762. which I have furnished with every Thing necessary for such a Composure, and have carefully examined the Calculations, and corrected them where I saw Occasion; so that I doubt not but the Reader will find it as correct and useful as any of its kind Extant.—With Regard to what I have said of Weather, I have observed the best Rules that the most experienced Astrologers, both Ancient and Modern, dictates on this Occasion:—But however the Weather is uncertain.—

As to what I have written in the vacant Pages of the Almanack, I don't make such Predictions, but only display what that Maxim of Astrology, which has been most approved by the Learned in all Ages, dictates on these Occasions;—so I hope it will be acceptable to the Reader.—

I did not design it to inform or direct the Learned, but for the Entertainment of those few Poor and Illiterate (that are not so biased against the Art as the Multitude are) where the studied Ingeny, and elegant Cadence of the learned Genius never comes, so I hope it will not be looked upon as an Imposition on the Publick, I am sure I did not design it, but only thought it necessary for an Almanack-maker to mention such Things.

Reader, your kind Acceptance of these my Labours, will rejoice the Heart of Him who is your well Wisher and humble Servant, Sept. 51 1761. NATHANAEL LOW.

HERE will be four Eclipses this Year 1762; two of the Sun, and two of the Moon, in the following Order, viz.

- I. The first will be of the Sun, April 24. invisible.
II. The second will be of the Moon, visible.

	H.	M.
Beginning May 7th. - - -	10.	40.	P. M.
Middle 8th Day, - - -	0.	12.	} A. M.
End, - - - - -	1.	32.

Digits 8. 6.

- III. The third is of the Sun, October 17th at 4 in the Morning, scarcely visible to us.

- IV. The fourth and last will be of the Moon, on Nov. 1st. Day, the Moon will rise 51 Min. past 4 Afternoon a small Matter eclipsed, and the Eclipse will end at 5 h. 17 m. which is so soon after Sun-setting, that the Eclipse will be scarcely seen by us.

“ We're all but Actors on the Worlds great Stage,
 “ Some play without, some with an Equipage:
 “ Death drops the Curtain, and the Farce is o'er,
 “ And all Distinction cease 'twixt Rich and Poor.”
 “ Consider this: Count ev'ry Hour your last;
 “ Lament all Vanities and Follies past.

" Think'st thou that GOD, to hide Himself inclines,
 " To scorching Sands, or pathless Plains confin'd,
 " Where Hills of Dust, by warring Winds are hurl'd,
 " Cramp'd in this Savage-corner of the World.
 " Has GOD a Place in Seas ! in Earth ! in Air !
 " In Heaven ! in Virtue ! He will sure appear !
 " Where'er we turn, where'er we look or move,
 " All ! all ! is Him ! and every where is Jove.

JULY hath 31 Days.

GOD gives us what He knows our Wants require.
 " And better Things than those which we desire.

Some prays for Riches; Riches they obtain:

And watch'd by Robbers, for their Wealth are slain.

Some pray from Prison to be freed; and come,

When guilty of their Vows, to fall at Home.

1762. AUGUST hath 31 Day:

" SUCH dear bought Blessings happen every Day,
 " Because we know not for what Things we pray.
 " Like Drunken Sots about the Streets we roam :
 " Well knows the Sott he has a certain Home ;
 " Yet knows not how to find the uncertain Place,
 " But blunders on, and staggers every Pace.
 " Thus all see Happiness, but few can find,
 " For far the greatest Part of Men are Blind.

THE most remarkable Advice I have from the Stars this Year, is the famous Conjunction of the two Superior Planets Saturn, and Jupiter, which will happen this Year in ten Degrees of the Celestial Ram, one of the Signs in the very Trigon, the like cannot happen oftener than once in twenty Years, and in this Sign no oftener than once in sixty Years. Upon this Point of Time Astrologers for many Years past have cast their Eyes, expecting a Scene of wonderful and remarkable Events will happen. — The Learned are of the Opinion that these Aspects may stir up great Politicians in contriving some new Ways and Methods of regulating the Affairs of the Government — It is also thought that some Parts of the World may be smitten with Famines; and most Places with Drought — It threatens mortal Diseases; and violent Deaths to both Men and Beasts by unlucky Accidents. — Also Wars, Deluges, Inundations, Earthquakes, and Alterations of Channels of Seas and Rivers: — As also, it threatens the Destruction of Kingdoms, and great Changes and Overturnings in all the World. — I suppress farther Particulars, and leave it to those who have had more Experience in the Works of the Ancients than I have; but thus much I thought it might not be amiss for me to mention, as almost all Almanack Writers of late in their several Performances have mentioned something of these Things. Though I don't make such Predictions, but only insert the Opinion of ancient Astrologers on these Occasions; neither do I bring any modern Author to support this Opinion, for those who write fashionably at this Day, condemn the whole as nothing but a meer Whim; and all who pretend to have Knowledge of it, are derided and set at nought as nothing but a parcel of Fantasticks that are with their insipid Flusions, endeavouring to impose on the Publick. — But it was not so in better Days, when the Professors of it were esteemed and honoured by great Men, the Tongues and Pens of all the famous Writers and fashionable Wits in the World were employ'd in defending the Credit of the Art. But now tis reduced to a low Ebb; though once it was so Eximious; there are but few now-a-Days, speaks in its Favour, or dares pretend to the Belief of it, and those few look'd upon by the Multitude with Contempt, and counted as nothing but a parcel of inquisitive and credulous Fools, whether whether they be Professors of it or no. The Reason is, because the greatest Part of Mankind like empty Vessels carried about with Vehicles of Prejudice, from one Extrem to another, as Custom and Fancy leads them.

“ Though Oracles no Certainty can give,
 “ ’Tis certain, Death will all our Woes relieve;
 “ One common Fate must wait upon us all,
 “ And arm’d with Vertue, can we feare to fall.”

May Heaven still send us fruitful Showers of Rain,
 And may the Earth by Handfuls bring forth Grain;
 May Flora’s Bounty cloathe the verdent Fields,
 And Heaven and Earth to us it’s Plenty veild.
